Endowment Achievement Awards
Presented to Simon and Doris Konover and Henry and Judy Zachs

West Hartford, CT – Two local couples, Henry and Judy Zachs and Simon and Doris Konover, were honored with the Endowment Achievement Award at the United Jewish Communities General Assembly in Los Angeles. Both couples were nominated by the Jewish Community Foundation of Greater Hartford for their leadership in endowment development in the Jewish community.

Well-known philanthropists, the Zachs family represents a model of exceptional service and charitable giving in the Greater Hartford Jewish community. Whatever challenge the community faces, Henry, Judy, and their family are there to meet it. The Jewish community campus proudly bears the Zachs name.

When the Jewish Community Foundation launched a matching gift program to encourage endowments for local agencies, it was Henry and Judy who became champions and contributed significantly to each agency's endowment goal. They understand the importance of endowments in sustaining local agencies and synagogues in the future.

The Konovers' support of the Jewish community extends to nearly every Jewish organization in Hartford and to our Jewish family abroad. Preserving our Jewish heritage and planting for those who come after us are important to Simon and Doris Konover.

The Konovers have created several endowment funds at the Foundation over the years. They believe that endowment giving is a way to ensure that the causes they care about and support during their lifetimes will be funded long into the future.
