We are proud to be part of a Jewish community whose members support a broad spectrum of interests and display boundless creativity in finding new ways to sustain and secure our future. We celebrate the diversity of ideas and donors in our community by recognizing the uniqueness of every individual and group, while also realizing that we are, ultimately, stronger together.

This year's Annual Report demonstrates the Jewish Community Foundation's (JCF's) commitment to promoting diversity in our Jewish community by highlighting a mosaic of donors, community partners, programs and grants whose impact makes our world a better place. You will read about:

- ▶ New social programs, such as the Jewish Federation's "Dignity Project," which provides thousands of hygiene packs to women in need
- ▶ A new young professionals engagement initiative, "JewGood Hartford," which promotes collective philanthropy through education and volunteerism
- ▶ Life-changing stories involving family philanthropy
- ▶ A collaboration between two community organizations to expand a music therapy program for adults with intellectual disabilities
- ▶ An ambitious vision to launch a new center that provides seniors with integrated services to help them age in place in their homes.
