Please Note the Change in Format

Instead of producing one Annual Report as we have done in the past, for FY2023 we are providing you with this new Impact Report and a new separate Financial Report. The FY2023 Financial Report will be emailed to you and available online in January 2024 at jcfhartford.org/about/finance

Letter from Leadership

The Jewish Community Foundation’s primary objective is to endow our community and to ensure our vibrant Jewish future. We firmly believe that when we partner with our donors to fund Jewish institutions, programs and services, participation in the Jewish community will grow and flourish. At the same time, we also recognize that life brings us both good and troubling times. That is why our leaders and donors have built a financially sound charitable institution capable of investing in opportunities for growth and addressing emergencies when they arise.

These past few years have challenged our community in ways we never imagined — a pandemic, social upheaval, a rise in antisemitism, Ukrainian Jews caught in the Russian invasion and the October 7th terror attack on Israeli civilians that plunged the Jewish State into war.

In all these cases, the Foundation has proved its mettle by swiftly providing considerable financial resources to our community partners here and around the world to help our fellow Jews in need.

The Foundation’s ability to achieve this is due to the generosity of our donors, who established over 1,400 funds at the Foundation with the same goal: to ensure the vitality and strength of the Jewish people in Greater Hartford and around the world — forever.

Without the vision of our donors who entrusted the Foundation with unrestricted endowment funds, the Foundation would never have been able to deploy considerable resources to help our fellow Jews and neighbors make it through crises, such as providing the first grants of $100,000 each to the COVID-19 Rapid Relief and Recovery Fund and the Federation’s Israel Emergency Campaign.

Without the vision of our donors who established Designated Funds, the Foundation would not be able to provide a consistent level of funding that our community partners can count on each year to find new ways to innovate, engage young families and care for the elderly and disadvantaged among us.

Without the vision of our donors who made after-life commitments to the local Jewish organizations they love, these cherished institutions would not have the security of knowing that money will be coming to invest in growth and to address urgent needs far into the future.

And without the generosity and dedication of our Donor Advised Fund holders, the Foundation would never have been able to grant over $1,000,000 in 15 days to provide relief to the victims of Hamas terror and the fire of Hezbollah.

In the following pages, you will read stories of how the Foundation partnered with our agencies, synagogues, donors and community members to invest in our community’s vitality. These are the stories that truly represent our thriving Jewish life and the special people who give and do whatever is necessary to take care of each other.

One of the most essential dictates in Jewish law that comes from the Talmud (Shevuot 32a) is Kol Yisarel areivim zeh b’zeh — all Israel [Jews] are responsible for one another. We are blessed to serve a community whose people practice this value through their actions, kindness and deeds. This ultimately strengthens our relationships, builds collective intimacy and helps pull us through when times are tough.

Jewish. Community. Forever.

Our Grants: Investing for Impact

Foundation Honors Legacy Society Members

More than 120 donors celebrated their commitment to ensuring Jewish Hartford's vibrant future during our Community Legacy Celebration, June 6, at The Emanuel Synagogue. Event Co-chairs Robin Landau and Melissa Weinstock hosted "red carpet" style video interviews, sparking spirited conversations with guests about supporting future generations. The night culminated in a story-telling presentation about Leading a Life of Legacy from Rabbi Daniel Cohen, author and friend of the Greater Hartford Jewish community.

We love that you love this community!

For Generations to Come: Leaving a Legacy Gift

"I was inspired to make a LIFE & LEGACY commitment to the Mandell Jewish Community Center. I work out there almost every day and I am on the Board of Directors. Whenever I walk in, I feel like I am home, I am where I belong. I would like the Mandell JCC to be around for many years, so other people can feel the same way I do."

DEBBIE MEHLMAN

"We were inspired to make a legacy commitment to Solomon Schechter Day School because it has become a home for us. We grew up attending a Schechter school in Upstate NY. This experience shaped our Jewish values and identity, and our commitment to the Jewish community. We hope to instill those same values in our children."

JASON AND ARIELLE KAY

"We want Farmington Valley Jewish Congregation (FVJC) to thrive as the center of Jewish cultural and religious life in the Farmington Valley. FVJC is a warm and wonderful community of people from many different walks of life, and all are welcome. We made LIFE & LEGACY gifts to ensure our Temple's community continues to grow and to pay forward what we have been blessed to have."

Join Our Book of Life

The Foundation created a Book of Life to honor your planned gift commitment to your favorite community organizations. The Book of Life is an online collection of photos and meaningful reflections that celebrates your philanthropic vision and investment in a joyous Jewish future!

We would love for you to add your story and be a part of our Book of Life.

Here's what we need from you:

- 1. A photo of you or your family*
- 2. A short description (no more than 200 words) or short video about you and why you have promised a future gift to your favorite organizations through the Foundation*

See a sample Book of Life submission when you visit jcfhartford.org/join-the-book-of-life

Community Grants in Action

A Look Back

Investing in Leadership: Cumulative Grants Support Growth of JTConnect

The Jewish Teen Learning Connection (JTConnect) started in the early 90s as an afterschool program, Yachad: Greater Hartford Jewish Community High School, with teens engaging in activities while exploring their Jewish heritage and values. Today, JTConnect is a thriving nonprofit cultivating the next generation of Jewish leaders. Over the years, the Foundation has consistently provided grants to support the organization's mission.

When the Foundation launched its Springboard Grant in 2019 to trigger transformative growth for Jewish organizations, JTConnect received the inaugural $120,000 three-year grant. The investment allowed the Executive Director to spend more time on fundraising, board development and engagement, and strategic planning. It also funded a new staff member who took over some of the Executive Director's administrative duties.

JTConnect Teen Philanthropy students gather at a recent Teen Leadership Philanthropy Institute Parents' Night.

"We needed to grow and reach more students—we could not have done this without the Foundation's Springboard Grant," says Caroline Poland, Executive Director of JTConnect. "Continued support from the Foundation allows us to sustain our growth and enrich our programming."

Following the Springboard Grant, the Foundation provided JTConnect with a $10,000 grant for its 2023 teen antisemitism conference and a two-year $18,000 grant in 2022 to expand its Teen Leadership Philanthropy Institute (TLPI) to three sites, Congregation Beth Israel, The Emanuel Synagogue, and Farmington Valley Jewish Congregation, and double the number of students participating in the program annually.

TLPI helps teens explore Jewish giving principles as they learn about causes, research and vet nonprofits, create fundraising campaigns and a strategic grant-making process through meaningful consensus conversations.

"TLPI has allowed me to draw upon all that I've learned from JTConnect and use it to address issues I'm passionate about and enact tangible change," says Ali Benthien, a TLPI participant.

After their enriching experiences with JTConnect, many students move on to college ready to lead fulfilling lives through a Jewish lens.

"My participation with JTConnect prepared me for living the rest of my life as a Jew," says Elijah Chaimovitch.

Board-directed Community Action grants from the Foundation's Unrestricted Funds support our community. Here's a look back at a few forward-thinking investments that might not have been possible without the Foundation's support.

Community Grants Foster Academic Potential For Day School Children

How can we cultivate inquisitive young minds and guide them as they transition into adult Jewish leaders? By challenging their spiritual and intellectual growth potential through rigorous and innovative curricula. Both New England Jewish Academy (NEJA) and Solomon Schechter Day School (Schechter) are achieving this goal by continuously seeking fresh, impactful ways to educate and inspire their students. To further this endeavor, the Foundation has consistently provided Board-directed community grants over the years to these institutions.

Both schools successfully implemented the renowned Reggio Emilia early childhood model, and STEAM education curricula, including extensive teacher training through multi-year community grants.

"One of my favorite aspects of the Reggio curriculum is Loose Parts," says Laura Kish, a teacher at NEJA. "Children explore different uses for objects typically not found in a classroom, realizing that one object can be used in many ways. This is an important part of furthering their cognitive skills."

Schechter students test their conveyor belt invention for the school's Purim STEAMfest, which emphasizes Jewish learning through science, technology, engineering, arts and math. The trial and error phase helps students learn from mistakes and improve their designs.

Through another JCF community grant, NEJA and Schechter will receive expert counsel from Gateways, a nonprofit that helps schools work toward greater inclusion in Jewish life. The grant will help identify what the schools need to teach a wide variety of learners, including challenged learners.

Schechter also used the Foundation's grant money to create a multi-age classroom structure, a dynamic environment of directed and self-directed learning for children in kindergarten through 4th grades. Students are recognized for their unique place on a learning continuum and guided to progress at their natural pace.

"I am a proud alum of Schechter and cannot begin to measure the impact it has had on my life," says Ben Zachs, an alum and board member of Schechter. "Unlike any other school, Schechter has a focus on high-level thinking and advanced academic skills that go beyond the classroom."

Students at NEJA engage in innovative learning through the renowned Reggio Emilia curriculum.

Grant Supports “Israel at 75” Community-wide Celebration

A consortium of Jewish agencies, synagogues and organizations marked Israel’s 75th birthday together with a year-long celebration, featuring a diverse range of events and activities that educated and engaged hundreds of community members. The celebration highlighted Israel’s rich history, traditions and modern-day contributions to the world.

To support this joyous occasion, the Foundation’s Board of Trustees issued a Community Grant of $40,700.

“It was our privilege to support this wonderful smorgasbord of Israel at 75 programs that celebrated the remarkable people, food and culture of the Jewish State,” says Jacob Schreiber, President and Chief Executive Officer of the Foundation.

At the PJ Library’s Happy Birthday Israel event, families celebrated with lots of games and activities for children and families.

Community members mark the transition from Yom Hazikaron (Israel Memorial Day) to Yom Haatzmaut (Israel Independence Day) at New England Jewish Academy.

Thirty students (grades 3-8) learned some new moves on the court from Israel superstar and former UCONN Husky, Doron Sheffer, during a basketball clinic at the Mandell JCC.

Participants on the Jewish Federation’s 2023 Mission to Israel pose for a photo on Masada overlooking the Dead Sea. The Foundation provided travel scholarships for five senior Jewish agency professionals.

Foundation Awards Professional Israel Experience Scholarships

Five senior Jewish agency professionals experienced the joy of visiting Israel through the Foundation’s Professional Israel Experience Scholarships, and generous funding from donor Mark Rosen, during the Jewish Federation’s 2023 Mission to Israel. Participants forged meaningful relationships with each other while experiencing the Promised Land’s history, biblical landmarks, modern cities, delicious foods and natural wonders.

Scholarships were awarded to Kim Corona Charron, Mandell Jewish Community Center; Rabbi Bekah Goldman, Farmington Valley Jewish Congregation Emek Shalom; Lisa Langsner, University of Hartford Hillel; Susie Lotreck, Jewish Community Foundation; and Edina Oestreicher, University of Connecticut Hillel.

“Being in Israel with 150 community members gave new meaning to the Foundation’s vision: Jewish. Community. Forever,” says Susie Lotreck, Vice President, Operations and Donor Services. “Seeing landmarks from thousands of years ago like the Dead Sea and Masada, walking in the footsteps of so many pioneers who have come before us from Golan Heights to our sister city Afula/Gilboa to Tel Aviv, being together for meaningful moments like Shabbat at the Western Wall...each experience deepened my commitment to our community, here in Greater Hartford and around the world. I am so grateful for this opportunity.”

Impact Through Philanthropy

Grants Help the People of Israel

In times of war, we stand strong and support people through our philanthropy.

The Foundation's Trustees approved an initial gift of $100,000 to kick off the Jewish Federation of Greater Hartford's Israel Emergency Campaign. It also approved $25,000 for local mental health support for the Jewish community across Greater Hartford, and $18,000 for urgent security needs, due to the war.

The Federation's campaign is part of a national effort organized by the Jewish Federations of North America (JFNA), the umbrella arm of local Federations. Donations will be distributed to JFNA's core partners to support victims of terror, help rebuild damaged infrastructure, and address the unprecedented levels of trauma caused by this horrific attack.

Second Emergency Grant Aids Ukrainian Jews

The Foundation's Trustees granted $25,000 to provide humanitarian assistance to Ukrainian Jews and their neighbors in January 2023. This is the second grant issued by the Foundation to help those impacted by Russia's war; the first grant for $50,000 was provided in March 2022.

The 2023 grant went to the American Jewish Joint Distribution Committee (JDC), a Jewish relief organization, to help ensure that JDC's clients received wood, coal, subsidies to cover utility bills, warm coats, blankets, sleeping bags, portable heaters and cooking stoves — everything they needed to survive the bitter cold.

Endow Hartford 21 Supports 54 Nonprofits

Endow Hartford 21, a matching gift endowment program initiated by the Zachs Family Foundation and supported by other lead donors, continued to raise funds to invest in the future of Greater Hartford's nonprofit community. The 1:2 match inspires donors to support the long-term future of 54 organizations.

The Foundation is proud to be an Administrator of the program alongside the Hartford Foundation for Public Giving. Endow Hartford 21 has secured more than $1.6 million for member organizations, a model example of endowment in action!

We are proud to share the various ways philanthropy can make a positive difference in our community and around the world.

Thank You for Supporting My Journey

By Elizabeth Taschuk

I have always wanted to become a teacher who would help my students grow and learn as I learn and grow along with them. Students spend the majority of their lives in school, which makes teachers one of the most important people within our society supporting the next generation. Teaching is a profession that requires a specific set of skills, which necessitates getting a college education and classroom teaching experience.

In today's world, a college education can be a significant cost. My life-long goal to be a teacher would not have been feasible without financial assistance. Thankfully, scholarships from thoughtful donors through the Jewish Community Foundation supported my dream. I was able to attend the University of Hartford where they provided me with top-quality instruction. The world of education is constantly evolving, and the professors made it a priority to keep us informed with the latest information, methods and pedagogies. At this University, I also gained student teaching experiences in suburban and urban settings, which best prepared me for my first class.

"I would not be the person I am today without the support of my family," says JCF scholarship recipient Elizabeth Taschuk, pictured here in the center with her family.

This year, I am beginning my long-awaited journey as a fourth-grade special education teacher. I have the Foundation and their donors to thank for their support in making my dream come true.

"Scholarships from thoughtful donors through the Jewish Community Foundation supported my dream."

Lillian Fund Grants $10,000 to Center for Children's Advocacy

The Foundation's giving circle for women, the Lillian Fund, awarded its annual $10,000 grant to the Center for Children's Advocacy (CCA) in Hartford, the largest children's legal rights organization in New England. CCA will use the grant toward its Advocacy Program to Reduce Child Homelessness.

Gift of Kiddush Cups Celebrates Family Legacy

Our donors come up with the most beautiful ways to pay tribute to their past, improve the present, and pave the way for a strong future for generations to come. This year, donors found a way to do it with Kiddush cups.

In 2024 and every year moving forward, a Brooklyn synagogue's Kiddush cups will be provided to each new Bar and Bat Mitzvah student, through to a new fund at the Jewish Community Foundation. The fund was created by siblings and Brooklyn natives who grew up at the synagogue and are now living in Manhattan and Hartford. They teamed up to start the fund, ensuring their enduring legacy at the synagogue and honoring their appreciation for the synagogue's role in their family's rites of passage over the decades.

Each young person will learn about the donors and their heartfelt connection to Judaism. In return, the synagogue will have a reliable stream of income so they can always provide beautiful Kiddush cups to every young person in their B'nai Mitzvah class.

The Rosows Live by their Values

Why did you open a Donor Advised Fund?

Philanthropy has always been important to us. We respect and admire the mission of the Foundation, and we wanted to become part of this community.

What causes do you support with your fund?

We have been participating in and supporting the Pan Mass Challenge for 16 years. This cycling event raises money for the Dana-Farber Cancer Institute.

Pam is a registered dietitian who has worked in health care for many years. She understands the community needs for food and basic assistance, which drives her charitable causes. She is a board member of Big Brothers Big Sisters of Connecticut (BBBS-CT), and she's seen firsthand the life changing impact BBBS-CT has on Connecticut's children (and their "Bigs"). Pam also served on the board of the Jewish Association for Community Living and still serves as an active volunteer.

We supported the upgrading of the Trinity College Rowing Program's motor boat fleet through the acquisition of a new Stillwater 25XL safety launch.

This new launch will enable coaches and student-athletes to train and race on the Connecticut river (which can have unpredictable conditions) with the peace of mind that the program and its coaches are capable of responding adequately to an emergency situation.

Will you be engaging family members in your grant recommendations?

Our family knows the importance of tzedakah. We all have different interests. We volunteer and support a variety of community organizations. Supporting causes that are important to us is a shared family responsibility, and we will continue to live by our values.

Is there anything else you'd like to tell us?

We firmly believe in the values of the Foundation:

1. tikkun olam (repairing the world)
2. tzedakah (caring for those in need)
3. tzedek (pursuing justice)

Our donors open funds that invest in the future of their favorite organizations. Here are some of the funds they opened this year. We are inspired by their values and generosity.

The Silvermans Engage in Family Philanthropy

When Debbie and Jay Silverman moved from Boston to West Hartford, our Jewish community immediately embraced them. "We moved here during the height of the Pandemic, and we were welcomed with open arms, and we want to give back," says Debbie.

Shortly after their move, the couple transferred their fund to the Foundation to support local and national organizations they love, and to share the joy of philanthropy with their 2.5-year-old daughter.

"We learned from Debbie's family how to be passionate about giving," says Jay. Debbie and Jay want to instill this passion in their daughter by helping her explore her favorite causes, such as protecting sea turtles and gorillas, and by putting donations into a tzedakah box before Shabbat. This Hanukah, the family will not only use the tzedakah box for philanthropy, they will also recommend a grant from their fund to an organization that their daughter loves.

Yale's Jewish Singing Group Invests in Endowment Fund

Magevet, Yale University's a cappella singing group devoted to Jewish, Hebrew and Israeli music, established a Designated Fund at the Foundation to help ensure the group's financial future.

"Magevet's ability to bring music to different communities has been limited by those communities' ability to cover expenses," says Eric Halpern, a founding member of Magevet and one of a group of Yale alumni who established the fund. "With an endowment fund, the extra income will expand the range of communities Magevet can serve and provide a permanent source of financial support.

"It just made sense to partner with the Foundation," Eric continues. "They specialize in managing funds for groups in the Jewish community."

Magevet, Yale University's a cappella singing group devoted to Jewish, Hebrew and Israeli music, is now supported by the Magevet Endowment Fund at the Foundation.

Steve & Debbie Kleinman’s Wedding Supports Jewish Organizations

Steve and Debbie Kleinman on their wedding day.

Steve and Debbie at the Foundation's 2019 Donor Reception.

When Steve and Debbie Kleinman got married in 1997, they didn't want gifts—they wanted to celebrate by helping others. The couple created a fund at the Foundation to help their favorite nonprofits thrive — forever — while hoping friends and family would contribute to this fund.

“We included this request in our wedding invitation,” says Steve. “We wanted to do something charitable and meaningful for our wedding that would have a lasting impact.” Adds Debbie, “Through the fund, we wanted our beliefs and values to live on.”

The Kleinmans celebrate each wedding anniversary by donating to their fund and continue to encourage gifts to the fund from family and friends. Twenty-five years later, their fund has helped local Jewish organizations including Voices of Hope, Jewish Historical Society and Jewish Family Services.

“Our fund celebrates our wedding and supports our favorite causes.”

Jack Hutensky’s Bar Mitzvah Celebration will Last a Lifetime

When Jack Hutensky’s parents established a Donor Advised Fund at the Foundation to celebrate his Bar Mitzvah, he was not sure what they had given him. It turned out to be a cherished gift that keeps on giving.

“Looking back, at 13, I had no idea what I’d been given,” says Jack. “But it has already taught me so much about how I want to live my life. No matter how big or small, I can’t think of a better gift parents could give their child.”

Jack’s parents seeded the fund with gifts he received for his Bar Mitzvah, and he regularly adds to it now that he is working full time.

Today, at age 25, Jack enjoys recommending grants from his fund to nonprofits that share his values and can make an impact. “I like to support organizations in communities where I have lived and worked, with an emphasis on Jewish causes and organizations that expand access to experiences that have been formative for me,” explains Jack.

“My parents gave me a fund that lets me support my communities and share my values.”

Funds Invest in Our Future

We are thankful to our donors for their investment in our community. Their funds provide a steady stream of income forever, whatever the future may bring.

The funds listed on the following pages are those valued at $5,000 or above as of June 30, 2023.

For a listing of funds and fund balances, please visit jcfhartford.org. You may also contact JCF to request a mailed copy.

Community Action Funds

Community Action Funds allow donors and leaders to support local community priorities — now and forever — by capitalizing on promising opportunities and addressing challenges to strengthen the Jewish community. By entrusting JCF’s Trustees to determine how to allocate these unrestricted endowment funds, donors ensure that their philanthropic vision for a vibrant Jewish community will be in good hands for generations to come.

Invest in your Philanthropic Vision

As your trusted partner, JCF can help you and your family realize your philanthropic goals in a variety of ways.

Community Action (Unrestricted) Funds

Fund innovation, capacity-building, emergency needs and long-term solutions to challenges facing the Greater Hartford's Jewish community. Your gifts enable JCF to award grants where they are most needed.

Donor Advised Funds

Support your favorite causes on your time schedule and receive favorable tax benefits*. Recommend grants to organizations and charitable causes you care about. Involve your family in a meaningful giving experience.

Designated Funds

Endow your support of a favorite organization or charitable cause. Distribute funds each year for a specific charitable use.

Scholarship Funds

Provide financial assistance to students in the pursuit of their educational goals and learning experiences.

Collective Funds and Giving Circle

Make decisions as a group about funding choices. Pool your resources with others, learn about critical community needs and decide where charitable dollars will have the greatest impact.

Legacy Giving

Create a future gift to the Jewish community through your will, trust or planned gift. Pass on your values to your family and loved ones and leave a lasting impact on the community.

We invite you to learn more about our areas of expertise.
